As a part of his or her role as an officer in California Future Business Leaders of America, your son/daughter has the opportunity to have his/her name, FBLA office, school name and address, or picture posted on the California FBLA web site. At no time will your son or daughter's home address, phone number, or personal email address be posted. Only their name, office, school name, and possibly a picture will be used. In addition, every email received by your student is also forwarded to your student's high school FBLA adviser as a copy. You can visit the California FBLA web site at <http://www.cafbla.org>.
